3 – Payment method	Delivery and payment per invoice
	With payment via invoice, the purchaser receives, together with the trekking tickets, an invoice with a request for payment amounting to the grand total given in box 2. After Sachsenforst's request for payment, the invoice amount is to be punctually transferred by the purchaser to the account indicated on the invoice. The payment day is considered as the day upon which the payment office is credited with the payment.
	Starting on the day the payment is due, failure to comply with the set payment period entitles Sachsenforst to demand, in the event of a delay in payment, default interest in accordance with § 288 of the German Civil Code (Bürgerliches Gesetzbuch – BGB). Furthermore, the purchaser must pay 5 Euros for every extrajudicial collection letter.
	The trekking tickets first become valid once the payment has been credited to the Sachsenforst bank account. It is not possible to revoke an order of the trekking tickets and ask for a cancellation or reimbursement of the amount stated on the invoice once the order has been processed.

4 – Confirmation	By signing this order, the purchaser acknowledges that he/she has read and understands the information and provisions for the purchasing of trekking tickets on page 2 of this form. He/she will pass on a copy of the information and provisions to the person for whom he/she has purchased the trekking tickets.

The information provided in this form is used for the issue of trekking tickets. The information can be saved in a database from Sachsenforst and non-identifying information can also be used for planning purposes.

Trekking ticket information and rules

Rules for shared use of the trekking huts and bivouac areas

1. A maintenance contribution through the purchase and validation of a trekking ticket must be paid for shared overnight usage of the Saxony Forestry Services' trekking huts and bivouac spots:
 - Adults (18 years of age and older): 10 Euro/night/person (trekking huts and bivouac spots)
 - Children and youth (up to 17 years of age): 1 Euro/night/person (trekking huts and bivouac spots)
2. Trekking tickets can be used within two calendar years of the date printed on the ticket.
3. The trekking tickets are validated at the trekking huts or bivouac area by tearing off and submitting a ticket section into the "Ticket box of trust".
4. The purchase of a ticket does not include exact-day booking, space reservations or exclusive usage.
5. The trekking tickets are to be validated upon arrival at the hut or bivouac area. It is possible that the hut or the bivouac area is already completely full upon arrival. The holder of the trekking ticket does not have the right to exclusive access to a hut or bivouac area or corresponding facilities. Therefore one should be informed about alternative overnight accommodation options.
6. Purchased trekking tickets cannot be returned. The purchase price will not be reimbursed.
7. Trekking ticket holders are obliged to observe all instructions and regulations issued by the Saxony Forestry Services for the usage of huts or bivouac spots, and related facilities.
8. Trekking tickets only apply for forestry huts and rest areas that are authorised and labelled as "trekking hut" or "bivouac area", and that are issued online at www.forststeig.eng.
9. Trekking huts and bivouac areas can only be reached by foot or bike. Guests are not permitted to drive in with motor vehicles.
10. Trekking tickets that have been manipulated are not valid.
11. Information and regulations upon purchasing the trekking ticket, including the list of usable trekking huts and bivouac areas, are updated and subject to change regularly.
12. Trekking tickets are not valid for commercial usage of the trekking huts and bivouac areas or for organised events. Commercial or organised usage must be applied for separately from Saxony Forestry Services.
13. Rules for shared use of the trekking huts and bivouac areas:
 - Hut and bivouac spot users are responsible for organisation, planning, order and safety while on their trip. Use at your own risk!
 - After usage the usage area should be left in a clean state, so that the next users find a tidy spot.
 - The user recognises the "code of conduct" for trekking huts and bivouac areas, and the "Saxony Forestry Services guidelines on conduct during forest recreation", as well as the posted hut regulations.
 - Saxony Forestry Services can close the access route and usage area due to weather-related or unexpected operational reasons. No claims can be made based on purchasing the trekking ticket due to these and other usage restrictions.
 - The liability of the free State of Saxony shall be excluded for any damages bivouac spot users incur related to usage, as far as legally possible.
